Qualifications: Why do you believe you would be a good Director?

I have been involved in Slow pitch softball continuously since 1971. Besides being a player I also formed leagues, umpired and trained umpires over the course of the last 53 years. It was my privilege to coach high school baseball and football in the state of Michigan for over 20 years. In my professional life I worked at one of the largest retailers in the midwest for 40 years also serving as chief steward of the union representing those workers.
