The Englewood Men's Senior softball league moved in to the second half of the winter season last week, with more strong play in all three divisions and some separation in the standings beginning to occur as well. Let's get right o those scores.

On Tuesday the 21st in the Bronze division, the Relics squished the Classics 19 to 4 while the Legends squeaked by the Elders 18 to 16.

In Thursday's games, the Relics topped the Elders 17 to 7 while the Legends beat the Classics 19 to 7.

On Tuesday over in the Silver division, Caddy Carts barely edged the Riverwood Relics 8 to 7 in a defensive battle; Xpertech Auto Repair doubled up Artur's Restaurant 22 to 11; Designer Tee's just got by the Englewood Elks 16 to 15 while Libee's Sports Bar topped the Purple Panthers 18 to 7.

In Thursday's Silver games, Designer Tee's handed the Caddy Carts a 9 to 5 loss in a well played defensive game. In a battle of restaurant sponsors, Libee's Sport Bar edged Artur's 19 to 18; Xpertech Auto Service beat the Riverwood Relics 14 to 5 while the Englewood Elks double up the Purple Panthers 20 to 10.

On Wednesday in the Gold division, New Faull Inn beat Key Agency 18 to 14; Scott's - Ken & Barb's restaurant got by the End Zone 17 to 13; a homerun by Lance Magnussen, his second of the year, wasn't enough as Premier Tee's Gulf Coast Moose edged the Shipwreck Pub in extra innings 25 - 22 , while the Englewood Moose Lodge #1933 took out the Hitmen 18 to 10 behind a grand slam 7th inning home run from Brian Donehue, his 12th of the year.

In Friday's games, Key Agency beat Scott's - Ken & Barb's Restaurant 13 to 7; Premier Tee's - Gulf Coast Moose topped New Faull Inn 18 to 13, the End Zone edged the Hitmen 14 to 13 and the Englewood Moose Lodge, behind another homerun from Donehue, his 13th, beat the Shipwreck Pub 21 to 11.

With 14 games completed, the season moves in to the final 7 games of the year before the post season tournament begins. The crowds have been terrific, with razzing the umps and players bordering on great comedy. As well, there's been some great play on both sides of the ball, and the homerun barrage is in full swing. So, come on out and watch the action, the games are played on the Adult Softball fields of the Englewood Sports Complex, which is located at 1300 River Road, just down the road from the radio station. Games are played Tuesday thru Friday at 9:30 and 11:00 am.
